D'MORSE'S INVICORATING CORDIAL

OR GENITAL DEBILITY, IMPOTENCY, INCONTI-NENCE, OR NOCTURNAL EMISSIONS, &c.—The as-TOR GENITAL SEBILITY, IMPOTENCY, INCONTINENCE, OR NOCTURNAL EMISSIONE, &-The astonishing success which has attended this invaluable medieine, for Loss of Muscular Energy, Physical Lassitude, and General Prestration, or any of the consequences of youthful indiscretion, or indulgence of the passion in riper years, rendurs it the most valuable presparation ever discovered.
In fast, as a rentedy for the above complaints, it stands unrivalled and alone. There is no other reliable remety, or any that has antentically received the sanction of the Medical faculty. The WONDERFUL VEGETABLE PRUBUCTION of which this medicine is composed has been tested, and its virtues proclaimed, by the bighost names of the faculty of London, Paris, and the chief cities of Europe, as well as by eminent Physicians in tils country. It is the only infallible remedy for NERYOUS, HEAD, and MINDCOMPLAINTS—the mental physic so long sought for and mever before found—the only agent that can administer to MIND BISEASES. It will remove all nervous affections, DEPRESSION, EXCITEMENT, Incapacity to study or buriness, less of MEMORY, CONFUSION, thoughts of selfdestruction, fear of issanity, &c. It will restore the appetice, renew the health of those who have destroyed it by Sensual Excesses or will practices. It has been said by some that these disorders, emissions, &c., were incurable.
This, hotwer, is not the fact.

UR MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL has cured, and is constantly curing, these complaints—relieving the mental and lightly incapacity of the unfortunate sufferer, as the following testimony of the mames received will conclusitely show:

Dr. Woodward, of —, Massachusetts, Insane Hospital,

Dr. Woodward, of —, Massachusetts, Insane Hospital,

mental and bodily incapacity of the unfortunate saturer, as the following testimony of the names received will conclusively show:

Dr. Woodward, of ——, Massachusetts Insane Hospitel, writes of one of his patients being cured by using thits Cordial thus: "It gives me piecsure to inform you that one of my patients, while in Boston, precured some of your Cordial. He tells me that he has not had a single emission since he commenced taking it, while before he had two or three a week. When he applied to me," says Dr. W., "Il strength. I prescribed the usual medicine used in those cases in the hospital, but they had no effect. In the mean time he purchased some of your Cordial, which has effected a cure I am sure no other medicine would. I shall ever recommend it, whenever an opportunity occurs."

The nature of the maiadies relieved by this Cordial are generally such as to leave the publication of certificates of ourse out of the question. The proprietor could produce a host of the most conclusive testimony to show that the great reputation it enjoys was not accidentally obtained, but is firmly based upon its positive and apparently nairsculous wirtues. In all directions are to be found the happy parents of healthy offsprings, who would not have been so but for this extraordinary preparation. And it is equally potent for many diseases for which it is recommended.

THE MEDICAL JOURNALS

THE COMMON EXPRESSION et those who have used this Extract is: "I had heard your Cordial highly spokens t, but was one of the incredulous in regard to its morits, having tried various medicines sold for the same purpose, different Sarsaparlikas, without deriving any henefit. I had simpst given up all hope of obtaining relief, when I purchased some of your Cordial. I had no faith whatever of its benefiting me—but it has. I feel atronger, have had no emissions since, although it is not three weeks. I am salistied that the half a dozen bottles I took will ours me."

Another says: "I was surprised at the effect your Cordial had. Why had I not heard of it before! It would have saved me so: much expense, besides years of mental and bodily suffering."

CAUTION.—Ask for Dr. Moree's Ordial, and take no other, as there are worthless imitations which its anrivalled excellence, fame, and popularity have brought into the market. It will not hurt the most delicate female, but de good. Beware of all other Cordials, &c., and try only this. It is put up in puts bottles, with the words Dr. MORSE'S INVIGORATING COLDIAL blown on the glass. Price $3 per bottle; two bottles, $0; six bottles, $12; and $34 per dozen.

WESLEY AND HIS COADJUTORS.

WESLEY AND HIS COADJUTORS.

SELDOM have I taken up a book of biegraphy with which I have been so well pleased and really profited as with wesley and his Coadjutors, by Prof. Larrabee. Those pure pages sparkle like dismonds, with strange as well as beautiful including, touching in turn every chord of the human heart, and arousing its latent energies to deeds of noble shring. Wesley is exhibited as he really was, a most wonderful man; wonderful principally as an agent of Providence in reviving pure religion in the world. The second volume opens with Charles Welley, that prince of lyric poets, who is made to pass before the reader so well defined that he seems to see his form and hear his voice, and be thrilled with hissublime hymns, a rich legacy left to the Church in all siter time.

Whitefield, the periese contor and devoted Christian, next appears, with his matchicas powers, arousing Great irritate and America with an eloquence and unction that literally bone down all before it, turning the people to God by thousands, till from the most degraded—degraded because forsaken of their religious teachers—plants of right-counness were seen apringing up and advaning the garden of the Lord. John Fletcher closes the list of notable wor thee. In the two volumes before us, and every way worthy is not a deal. He have the most of the last. He have to make along his own incomparable, beautities simplicity, with a holiness all but s auman, possessing takents that an angel might hav ided; the acutest and ablest controversalist writer a live or any subsequent age.—Zoon z Harold.
